

Future M' with every component modelled by the random forest, against the historical baseline it is built on Percentages are the change in the median M', i.e. median(M') against median(New_M_2019). The median of the per-cell changes is a different statistic and is the one tabulated in comparison_vs_New_M_2019.csv.